

~~Secret~~Africa*Nigeria

On 22 April a bomb exploded in the crowded Evans Square market area of Lagos, killing at least three persons and injuring several others. A police bomb disposal unit also found an unexploded device at the scene. [ ]

Asia*India

On 18 April in Udhampur district, Jammu and Kashmir State, armed militants entered two houses and killed all 13 inhabitants, including two women and three children. A Pakistan-based group, Lashkar-I-Toiba, claimed responsibility. [ ]

Japan

On 21 April in Kisarazu, Chiba Prefecture, a timed device exploded in the garage of the planning chief in charge of land disputes for the Narita Airport. The official and his family escaped injury, but the explosion shattered a car windshield and destroyed the garage roof. Chukaku-Ha claimed responsibility. [ ]

Sri Lanka

A grenade exploded in a crowded market area in Jaffna on 12 April, killing at least one bystander and injuring 19 others. The Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE) are suspected. [ ]

On 14 April suspected LTTE guerrillas attacked a police post in Trincomalee, killing three officers and one civilian, and seriously wounding one inspector. [ ]

Eurasia*Latvia

On 2 April a bomb exploded in the courtyard of the main Jewish synagogue in Riga's historic old town, causing extensive damage to the building's main entrance. A swastika-adorned Latvian flag was found at the scene. Authorities suspect a member of Eduard Limonov's Russian Bolshevik Party. [ ]

Europe*Greece

A makeshift gas-canister bomb detonated at the Athens office of the Greek Deputy Labor Minister on 1 April, causing minor damage. Police officials suspect members or sympathizers of several local militant leftist organizations. [ ]

Spain

Unidentified assailants threw two handgrenades at a Basque regional government building in San Sebastian on 1 April, causing minor damage. Authorities suspect militant members of the Basque Fatherland and Liberty (ETA) organization. [ ]

On 1 April in Irun an explosive device detonated at an apartment building where a Popular Party member resides, slightly injuring the politician's sister and causing minor damage. Police authorities suspect ETA involvement. [ ]

A small bomb exploded at an insurance company office in Madrid on 2 April, causing minor damage. Police disarmed a second device found in a separate office. The Anti-Fascist Revolutionary Group-1 October claimed responsibility. [ ]

~~Secret~~

~~SECRET~~

(b)(1)
(b)(3)

May 1998

TERRORISM R E V I E W

11A5
(C) CIA/DI TR 98-005

~~SECRET~~

DI TR 98-005
May 1998

Copy 396